Reasons for allowance

1. This communication is in response to applicant's 12/10/2004 amendment in the application of Jones et al. for a "Method and system for transmitting data between a receiver and a transmitter" filed 03/27/2000. The amendment and response has been entered and made of record. Claim 5 has been canceled per Applicant's request, and Claims 1, 6, 7, 14, 16, 17 have been amended. The claims have been amended to include the allowable subject matter set forth in the office action mailed on 09/21/2004.

2. Claims 1-4, 6-18 are allowable as evident by applicant's amendment (Claims are renumbered as 1-17 respectively)

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art of record fails to disclose or suggest wherein prior to the step of the receiver/transmitter sending/responding a virtual channel credit packet, further comprising the steps of: the receiver/transmitter checking for available buffer for transmission; the receiver/transmitter waiting for a predetermined time if no buffer is available; and the receiver/transmitter sending/responding the virtual channel credit packet for the specific virtual channel once a buffer is available, as specifically recited in the claims. The instant invention, in combination with the other claimed features, improves upon the Prior Art by providing a method and system for permissible transmission via at least one high speed link having a plurality of virtual channels.
